2020 FREDERIC CHURCH AWARD RECIPIENTS

As Senior Curator at the Smithsonian American Art Museum, ELEANOR JONES HARVEY is a leading authority on American landscape painting and champion of American Art at the national level. Eleanor's engagement with the work of Frederic Church extends from her decade at the Dallas Museum of Art (1992-2002), home to Church's "The Icebergs" (1861), to her current groundbreaking exhibition, Alexander von Humboldt and the United States: Art, Nature, and Culture. The 2020 Frederic Church Award recognizes Eleanor's lead role in bringing Church's legacy as America's foremost landscape artist forward to new generations.

DAVID REDDEN's 42 year-long career at Sotheby's is the stuff of legend. Starting as a catalogue trainee, he served as Vice-Chairman from 2000 to 2016. David has served the organizations that protect and preserve the Hudson Valley's legacy of landscape, nature, and history, including chairing the boards of Scenic Hudson, Black Rock Forest, and The Olana Partnership. The 2020 Frederic Church Award recognizes David not only for his crucial role in building our national heritage but also for the tremendous work he has done in service to the preservation and promotion of the Hudson Valley as a founding landscape of American art and identity.

THE FREDERIC CHURCH AWARD

America's greatest landscape artist, Frederic Edwin Church (1826-1900) created works at the intersection of science, art, and environmental consciousness. The Olana Partnership's Frederic Church Award honors individuals and organizations who make extraordinary contributions to American art and culture.

THE OLANA PARTNERSHIP

The Olana Partnership, a private not-for-profit education corporation, operates Olana State Historic Site in a cooperative agreement with New York State Parks. Funds raised at the 2020 gala will support our mission to preserve and interpret Olana as a place of enduring inspiration for our nation and the world.

OLANA STATE HISTORIC SITE

Frederic Church designed Olana as a holistic environment integrating his advanced ideas about art, architecture, landscape design, and environmental conservation over 40 years (1860-1900). Olana is part of New York State's system of historic sites, and the 250-acre landscape is open to the public year-round with free access for recreational use.
